

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

DEDICATION

TO

HER ROYAL HIGHNESS

Victoria-Mary-Louisa, Duchess of Kent.

MADAM,

In most respectfully dedicating these small volumes to your Royal Highness, may we be permitted to express our hope that they may be found not wholly unworthy the gracious Patronage which you have vouchsafed to them, and for which your Royal Highness will condescend to accept our humble and sincere thanks.

That Your Royal Highness may long live in the enjoyment of health and happiness, and of that high estimation which the exemplary virtues of the female character never fail to secure from the British Public, is, Madam, the ardent prayer of

Your Royal Highness's

Most grateful and devoted Servants,

ANNE, ELIZA, AND MARIA INNES.

PREFACE.

---

THAT considerable interest attaches to the study of Genealogy will be readily admitted by all who are conversant with its details; while on the other hand it is regarded with some degree of prejudice as dry and laborious, by such as, glancing only at the surface, discover in it little else than a barren catalogue of names and dates. The Editors of this work, even in the season of youth and gaiety, surrounded by the enjoyments of social life, and the blessings of the paternal roof, have passed many hours of high gratification in extended investigations connected with this study; and considering that, as a companion to History, Genealogy forms a compendious species of Biography, and an interesting summary of Chronology, they have noticed with pleasure that a pursuit so attractive to them has lately made considerable advances upon the attention of the higher classes in this country, and is daily becoming more fashionable.

Anxious, therefore, to assist in recommending it to the national taste, the Editors again offer to the Public

THE PEERAGE OF THE BRITISH EMPIRE, in a form they hope at once intelligible to the mind and pleasing to the eye ; and they flatter themselves that long habits of close attention to the subject, the great labour and expence which they have bestowed upon collecting and verifying the materials, together with the novelty and perspicuity of their plan, and their important improvements upon former Publications, will insure to this production a continuance of the approbation which they have so zealously endeavoured to deserve.

They are now enabled to present to the Public descriptions of more than three thousand individuals, whom they have been the first to introduce into their appropriate places in a printed Peerage ; their accounts of COLLATERAL DESCENDANTS from the several Peerages, a feature peculiar to this Work, have received considerable extension ; and they have appended to each pedigree short family histories, which they trust will prove an acceptable addition, particularly as their having been compiled with the greatest care and diligence from collations of the most approved authorities, may be considered a pledge of their accuracy ; an account of the various offices held under government and otherwise by each individual mentioned, and a genealogical list of the Baronets, including such particulars of their families as are most important, have also been added to this Peerage, in the hope of embracing every particular which can render it generally useful. And the Editors must be permitted to notice, as offering, they hope, an additional and strong recommendation of the present edition, the beautifully engraved Coats of Arms now for the first time introduced; for the accuracy of which they are indebted to the kindness of their excellent friend EDMUND LODGE, Esq., Norroy King of Arms, who liberally undertook the correction of the Arms of the Peers of England, and to whom they beg leave to return their most grateful acknowledgments.

They have also to present their most respectful thanks to the Nobility, to whose condescending and ample communications this work must be considered as being principally indebted for a degree of authenticity and accuracy hitherto unknown in publications of this nature, and to express which obligation more specifically would far exceed the limits of this Preface.

Much, they are well aware, yet remains to be done, but the Editors do not hesitate to pledge their utmost exertions to render their Annual Volumes an accurate and complete Register of all living Members of the British Nobility; and with this view they still respectfully and earnestly entreat assistance, by communications addressed "For the Annual Peerage, Messrs. Saunders and Otley's Public Library, Conduit Street." They would feel particularly grateful to any Persons described in the Work who would favour them with authentic notices of Births, with the addition of Children's names, Marriages, or Deaths, which may take place in their families.

For unavoidable errors of the press, which the most diligent revision may have left, they hope indulgence; for more important errors, if such should yet be found in some of their numerous Pedigrees, they request corrections; trusting that a candid criticism will make reasonable allowances for the difficulties attending an undertaking so extensive and laborious.

EXPLANATION OF THE PLAN.

AN Alphabetical arrangement is adopted as indisputably the most convenient for a book of reference; but, to mark the precedence of each Peer, a list of the whole Peerage, according to the seniority of creation is prefixed.

The Work embraces the Parentage, Births, Marriages, and Issue of all living members of each Family descended in the male line from the first Peer, or, in case of a Barony in fee, from the Marriage by which the honour passed into the Family now in possession. To preserve the connexions between different Families, all Individuals who have married are retained so long as any member of their generation survives; while the requisite conciseness of these volumes (which prohibits the introduction of any extraneous matter whatsoever) occasions the omission of all persons who have died unmarried, unless one or other of their parents is living, or unless the individual was heir-apparent to the Title.

The passages in small type are purely Genealogical, and may be passed over without injury to the sense.

For the sake of perspicuity, every member of a Family occupies a distinct Paragraph ; and it is worthy of notice, that, in consequence of the arrangement adopted, all the males of each family appear in the work in the rotation in which they would be called to the inheritance of the Title : the names of those persons who are known to be deceased are printed in italics.

When a COLLATERAL BRANCH is introduced, all its subsequent descendants are denominated by their relationship to the present head of the branch, and not, as in other cases, to the existing Peer.

In a work intended for general use, it has been deemed more convenient to distinguish the whole Peerage by its three grand divisions into English, Scotch, and Irish : thus avoiding the perplexity which the more strictly correct subdivisions of the first class into Peerages of England, of Great Britain, and of the United Kingdom, would create.

The Titles of the Peer are given at the head of each article, but for the sake of brevity, the actual title only is expressed, without adding the place from whence it is taken.

In the successions of the respective Peerages a difference will, in many instances, be found between the present computation and that hitherto in use ; Peeresses in their own right not having formerly been taken into the account, as they are in this Publication ; and in cases of attainted Peerages now restored, and those which have been dormant, the persons who are entitled to them by inheritance are also reckoned, but this is always noticed in its place.

The Family name which refers to all its members, is placed immediately under the principal Title, and is not repeated. When any individual of a family has assumed a surname which is not that of the family generally, the assumed name is printed in capitals. The Christian names of all Peers are likewise printed in capitals.

Where marriages have taken place between members of different Families, both in the Peerage, the Family of the lady (unless the daughter of a Peer) is referred to by its Title printed in capitals, thus :—" Lord Maryborough, married Catherine-Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Admiral the Honourable John Forbes of GRANARD," instead of the more circumlocutory form of " Admiral the Honourable John Forbes, 2nd son of George, 3rd E. of Granard," which, by turning to that Family, he will appear to be. In all cases of Marriages, where the father of the lady is represented as deceased, the abbreviation " dec." is affixed to his name, as shorter than the usual phrase, " the late."

In the short Pedigrees annexed to each Family, notice is taken of any Patents of Nobility, which settle the Titles in any other line, than the usual one, of the first Peer's issue male.

To render all the peculiarities of the Plan familiar to the Reader, the following example is added, with remarks pointing out the application of the preceding Rules.

ABERCORN, ENGLISH MARQUESS.

HAMILTON.

2nd M. of Abercorn 1790; 3rd V. Hamilton 1786.
E. of Abercorn, &c. in Scotland.
V. Strabane, &c. in Ireland.

The Coronet appropriate to the Peer's degree is prefixed to each article.

This should be strictly speaking Marquess of Great Britain, but is called English only, for the reason before given.

The family name.—Each Member of the family, except married females, bears this name, unless it is otherwise expressed.

His Lordship is the 2nd Marquess of Abercorn, which title was created in 1790; and 3rd V. Hamilton, created 1786.

The Scotch and Irish titles are enumerated under their proper heads.—See Abercorn, Scotch Earl, and Strabane.

JAMES, b. 21 Jan. 1811, suc. 27 Jan. 1818.

MOTHER.

Re-m. to the E. of Aberdeen.

Harriet, 2nd dau. of Hon. John Douglas of MORTON, dec., b. 8 June 1792, wid. of

The Peer's Christian name is here printed in capitals; his offices should he sustain any would be annexed.

The Peer's Mother.

She is remarried as stated.

This lady (the Marquess's mother) is dau. of the late Honourable John Douglas, described as deceased; he was of the Earl of Morton's family, and will be found under that title. She was, before her 2nd marriage, widow of James, V. Hamilton, of course the father of the Peer; as heir apparent of the family the * is prefixed to his name; being dead his name is printed in italics. This mark † is used for the word died.

BROTHER AND SISTER.

1 Lady Harriet, b. 1812.
2*Ld. Claude, b. 1813.

Brother and sister of the Peer, children of his father and mother, who have been described above.

He is heir presumptive as denoted by the *.

The Peer's aunt, deceased.

This lady is daughter of

V. Strabane, &c., in Ireland.

GRANDFATHER'S COUSINS.

Not in descent from the English Peerage.

The Marquess's aunt is daughter of the 1st Marquess, by his 1st marriage, of which the date is here given, with

The Marquess's grandmother, mother of the lady about to be mentioned.

This lady is the Marquess's aunt.—There were other children of the 1st Marquess's 1st marriage, but having all died unmarried, and both parents being also dead, they are omitted. This lady is also dead, but is inserted on account of her marriage.

The Marquess's aunt by half blood is the daughter of the 1st Marquess's 2nd marriage with a lady who was not the mother of the present Marquess's father;

Description of the 1st Marquess's 2nd wife, with an account [within brackets] of her 2nd marriage.

This lady is the Marquess's aunt by half blood.

This Notice refers only to the English titles, of which the first patent is described, having a special limitation. The family history is reserved to be inserted under the more ancient Scotch titles.

The Earl's Coronet is appropriate to the superior Scotch title.

The chief Scotch title.

The family name.

Enumeration of the Scotch titles with the dates of their creation, and the number of Peers who have borne them.

For particulars of the present state of the family see the preceding article.

Persons not in descent from the English peerage, but capable of inheriting the Scotch titles, are inserted under this article.

The cousins of the Marquess's grandfather John-James, 1st Marquess.

Such Irish Peers as bear superior rank in the English Peerage, are pointed out by an E affixed to their Irish titles.

By Act for the Union of Ireland, 39 and 40 George III. chap. 67. it is enacted, "The Lords of Parliament, on the part of Ireland, shall have the same privileges as the Lords on the part of Great Britain; and all the Lords Spiritual of Ireland shall have rank next after the Lords Spiritual of the same rank in Great Britain, and shall enjoy the same privileges (except those depending upon sitting in the House of Lords,) and the Temporal Peers of Ireland shall have rank next after the Peers of the like rank in Great Britain at the time of the Union; and all Peerages of Ireland and of the United Kingdom, created after the Union, shall have rank according to creation, and all Peerages of Great Britain and Ireland, shall in all other respects be considered as Peerages of the United Kingdom, and the Peers of Ireland shall enjoy the same privileges, except those depending upon sitting in the House of Lords."

On the extinction of three Irish Peerages, the King has the power to create one new Irish Peerage, which is to rank among the English Peers, according to their dates.

COUSINS.

Issue of
P. William-Henry, D. of Gloucester, 3rd son of * Frederick, P. of Wales.

P. William-Frederick, D. of GLOUCESTER.

&c. See D. of Gloucester.

No family of modern Europe can boast of equal antiquity with that which now so gloriously sways the British sceptre.

From the earliest periods of Ancient Rome the Patrician name of ACTIUS is occasionally discerned in history; in the climax of Julian greatness a daughter of Actius Balbus, and niece of Julius Cæsar, gave birth, by her marriage with Caius Octavianus, to the Emperor Augustus; and four hundred years after the Christian Æra, we find a CAIUS ACTIUS of ESTE holding considerable power in Northern Italy, who needs not much assistance from imagination to engraft him on the ancient Roman stock.

From him the family pedigree is sufficiently authenticated, through a long line of Marquesses of ESTE, to Azo IV., who having married Cunegunda, daughter of Guelph III., Duke of Lower Bavaria, and sister and heir of Guelph IV., left his Italian possessions to his younger brother, Fulco, (whose male descendants became extinct in 1790, by the death of Hercules III., Duke of Modena,) and removed into Germany; he was father of Guelph V., whose son,

HENRY the Black, married Wulfhilda, daughter and heir of Magnus Duke of Saxony on the Elbe; and their son, HENRY the Proud, married Gertrude, daughter and heir of the Emperor Lothair, by Richenza, daughter and heir of Henry Duke of Saxony on the Weser, who united in his own person, and by marriage, the inheritance of the ancient Dukes of Saxony in all their various branches, and of the Saxon Emperors; being himself descended through twenty male generations, all reigning Kings, Princes, or Dukes of Saxony, from Hengist, King of the Saxons, whose successful descent upon the coast of Kent, gave rise to the establishment of the kings of his lineage in Britain.

In the person of HENRY the Lion, Duke of Saxony and Bavaria, son of HENRY the Proud, and Gertrude, heiress of Saxony, the House of ESTE attained a degree of power in the empire so formidable to the reigning Emperors, that by the promulgation of the ban of the empire, in the year 1180, his vassals were instigated to assert their independence, and after a life spent in military achievements and the display of prowess and heroism worthy of better success, he left at length to his posterity the possession of the Duchy of Brunswick only, while the present reigning houses of Saxony, Bavaria, Brandenburg, Mecklenburg, Wirtemberg, Anhalt, and the first line of Austrian princes rose on the ruins of their ancient inheritance. From HENRY the Lion descended in the 11th degree,

ERNST, Duke of Brunswick, whose eldest son Henry, was ancestor of Charles the present reigning Duke of Brunswick; and his second son WILLIAM, was grandfather of ERNST, Elector of Hanover, whose marriage with the Princess

4 DUKE OF CLARENCE—CUMBERLAND.

Sophia, daughter of Frederick 5th, Elector Palatine, by the Princess Elizabeth, daughter of King James 1st, finally conducted the House of Brunswick to the throne of these realms.

For the English reader it is unnecessary to trace the descents and intermarriages by which, through the blessing of God, the various lines of Saxon, Norman, and Scottish Kings, became united in the person of King JAMES 1st; from which truly royal stock, the same divine providence has graciously preserved a Protestant branch of such illustrious descent and of such fair promise for that perpetuation, which is the fervent prayer put up for it by every British subject.

Elgiva, dau. of K. Ethelred, m. Uthred, E. of Northumberland; their dau. and heir Alghata, m. Maldred, an eminent Thane, whose son by her, Cospatrik, E. of Northumberland, retired on the Norman conquest into Scotland; he had three sons, of whom Dolphin, the eld., became Ld. of Raby in England, and Cospatrik, the youngest, was ancestor of the E. of Home, and Lds. Dundas and Melville.

Maldred, the son of Dolphin, was father of Robert, Ld. of Raby, who m. Isabel de Nevill, sister and heir of Henry, B. Nevill, and great grand-dau. of Gilbert de Nevill, Admiral of the Fleet to William the Conqueror. Their son Geoffrey, assumed the name of Nevill, and was great grandfather of Ralph, summoned to Parliament as B. Nevill, 1295; whose grandson

John, 3rd B. Nevill, had by his 1st m.

- 1 Ralph, 4th Ld., created E. of Westmoreland; and
- 2 Thomas, in right of his wife, B. Furnival; his daughter, and at length sole heir Mand, m. John Talbot, 1st E. of Shrewsbury, between whose coheirs the Barony is now in abeyance.

John, 3d B. Nevill, had by his 2d m.

- 3 John Nevill, B. Latimer, in right of his mother, and
- 4 Elizabeth, sole heir to her brother; she m. Sir Thomas Willoughby, and her heir general is the present Ld. Willoughby de Broke.

Ralph, 1st E. of Westmoreland, had five sons;

- 1 John, who † V. P., and his male posterity failed in Charles, 6th Earl of Westmoreland, whose titles were forfeited by attainder, in 1570.
- 2 Richard, E. of Salisbury, in right of his wife, Alice, sole dau. and heir of Thomas de Montacute, 4th E. of Salisbury, B. Montacute, and Monthermer; they had two sons: 1 Richard, who suc. as E. of Salisbury, and was also E. of Warwick by his m. with Anne, dau. and at length heir of Richard de Beauchamp, E. of Warwick, but his honours were forfeited, and he † without issue male in 1471. 2 John, summoned to Parliament as B. Montagu, 1461, created E. of Northumberland 1467, and M. Montagu in 1470, attainted in 1471; his son George created D. of Bedford in 1469, was degraded by Parliament in 1477, and † without issue in 1483, leaving five sisters, his coheirs.

- 3 George, B. Latimer, which title fell into abeyance on the death of John, 4th Ld., in 1377, between his four daughters and coheirs; Edmund Nevill, lineal male descendant of the 1st Ld., claimed the Earldom of Westmoreland, in the reign of James 1st, as next heir male of the 6th E., but failed in his claim on account of the attainder.

- 4 EDWARD, Ancestor of the E. of Abergavenny.

- 5 William, B. Fauconberg, in right of his wife, and E. of Kent; he † without issue male, in 1463, when the Earldom became extinct, and the barony fell into abeyance between his three daughters and coheirs.

EDWARD NEVILL, 4th surviving son of Ralph, 1st E. of Westmoreland, and the only one of this illustrious race, whose male descendants continue to flourish in the Peerage, m. Elizabeth, coheir by her mother of the Barons Despencer and Burghersh, dau. and sole heir of RICHARD DE BEAUCHAMP, E. of Worcester, son and heir of WILLIAM DE BEAUCHAMP, who was summoned to Parliament as B. de Bergavenny, in 1392, being seised of the Castle and lands of Bergavenny, whose Lords had been Peers of Parliament, by tenure from the reign of Henry 3d. In right of Elizabeth his said wife, EDWARD NEVILL was summoned to Parliament, in 1450, as B. ABERGAVERY, which Barony descended from him in the direct male line, to his great grandson, HENRY, 6th Ld. by writ, and 13th by tenure; who leaving no male issue, was succeeded, according to a decision of the House of Lords, by his only daughter Elizabeth, wife of Sir Thomas Fane, in the Barony of Ledespencer, that of Burghersh not having been called out of abeyance; and by his Nephew, and heir male,

EDWARD, 14th Ld., in the Barony of Abergavenny, which was thus declared to be held by tenure, and has since lineally descended to his heirs male.

GEORGE, 24th Ld., 7th in descent from him, was created E. of Abergavenny, and was father of the present Earl.

Harding, a nobleman sprung from the Kings of Denmark, settled in England with William the Conqueror. His son, ROBERT, obtained from K. Henry II. the Castle of Berkeley, and held with it the dignity of B. of the realm, which was enjoyed by his descendants, by tenure of their castle of Berkeley, till THOMAS, 6th B. Berkeley, by tenure, was summoned to Parliament by writ in 1295. THOMAS, 5th L.D., and 10th by tenure, m. Margaret, dau. and sole heir of Warine, 2nd B. Lisle, [by writ 1357,] and † without issue male, leaving an only dau. Elizabeth, wife of Richard Beauchamp, 14th E. of Warwick, between whose three daughters and coheirs, the Barony of Lisle is in abeyance, and the Barony of Berkeley [by writ 1295,] would have been so, but that JAMES de Berkeley, nephew and heir male of the 10th L.D., claimed and was allowed the Barony by the tenure of his castle of Berkeley to which he was heir of entail; he was summoned in 1416. He m. Isabel, 2nd dau. at length and coheir of Thomas Mowbray, 1st D. of Norfolk, B. Mowbray, [by writ 1285,] and coheir of the Barony of Braose of Gower, [by writ 1295,] by Elizabeth, dau. and sole heir of John, 3rd B. Segrave, [by writ 1264,] WILLIAM, their son and heir, was created V. Berkeley in 1481, E. of Nottingham, 1483, and M. of Berkeley 1488; he † without issue, in 1492, when these titles became ext., but the Barony devolved on MAURICE, his Brother, whose descendant in the 4th degree, Sir Thomas Berkeley, eld. son of HENRY, 17th L.D. by tenure, m. Elizabeth, dau. and sole heir of George Cary, 2nd Ld. Hunsdon, grandson and heir of William Cary, Esq., by Lady Mary, 2nd dau. and co-heir of Thomas Boleyn, who was created in 1539, E. of Wiltshire, with remainder to his heirs male, and E. of Ormond in Ireland, with remainder to his heirs general; the Earldom of Wiltshire became ext. on his death in 1538, but the Earldom of Ormond fell into abeyance between his two daughters and coheirs; 1 Ann, the wife of K. Henry 8th, on the death of whose dau., Q. Elizabeth, the abeyance terminated; and 2 Lady Mary, wife of Sir Thomas Berkeley, whose heir the present E. is, it should seem, entitled to the Irish Earldom of Ormond as created by this Patent.

GEORGE, 18th L.D., their son and heir, was father of GEORGE, created V. DURELEY, and E. BERKELEY, from whom in the 4th degree descended FREDERICK-AUGUSTUS, the late and 5th Earl.

His Lordship is coheir of the Baronies of Segrave and Mowbray, and coheir of one Moiety of the Barony of Braose of Gower.

 Rev. Edward Bouverie.---See E. of Radnor.

Of this illustrious family, the first who settled in England, was Reginald de Courtenay, who came over from France in the reign of Henry II.

Reginald de Courtenay claimed his descent from Pharamond, founder of the French Monarchy; he had a dau. and heir Elizabeth, m. to Peter, youngest son of Louis 6th, K. of France, who assumed the name and arms of Courtenay, and was father by her of Peter, Emp. of Constantinople, whose male line failed in his grandchildren; and of other sons of whom Robert continued the line of Courtenay in France, now extinct.

Whether the Reginald who came into England was this Reginald, who left his patrimony in France to his dau. and her husband, and obtained from K. Henry II. a remuneration in England, where he m. a 2nd wife; or whether he was a younger son of Peter and Elizabeth de Courtenay, genealogists are not agreed.

4th in descent from Reginald de Courtenay was Hugh, summoned to Parliament in 1299, as B. Courtenay, and created E. of Devon in 1335; he was father of Hugh, 2nd E., who had eight sons; none of whom left surviving issue, except Edward, 3rd son, ancestor of the succeeding Earls of Devon and Marquesses of Exeter, whose line failed, after many attainders and restorations, on the death in 1556, of Edward, 12th E. of Devon, and 2nd M. of Exeter: and Sir Philip Courtenay, 6th son, ancestor in the 13th degree of WILLIAM, 1st V., father of WILLIAM, 2nd V., father of the present Peer.

There are descendants from the Hon. and Rev. John Fielding, 4th son of GEORGE, E. of DESMOND, and brother of WILLIAM, 3rd E. of DENBIGH. Of this branch was the celebrated Author and Magistrate, Henry Fielding, Esq.

His Lordship derives his origin from the ancient Counts of Hapsburg, in Germany, from whom the Emperors of Germany, of the House of Austria Hapsburg, were also descended. Sir Geoffrey, a younger son of Geoffrey, C. of Hapsburg, served under K. Henry III., and, settling in England, assumed the surname of Fielding. 8th in descent from him, was WILLIAM, 1st E., father of 1 BASIL, 2nd E., created B. St. Liz, with remainder, failing his issue male, to the heirs male of his father; he † without issue.
 2 GEORGE, created E. of DESMOND, &c. in Ireland; his son and heir WILLIAM, 2nd E. of DESMOND, suc. to all the honours of his uncle, BASIL, 2nd E. of DENBIGH, and was great-grandfather of
 BASIL, 6th E., b. 3 Jan. 1719, suc. (his father WILLIAM, 5th E.) 2 Aug. 1755, † 14 July 1800; having m. 1st, 12 April 1757, Mary, 3rd dau. and co-heir of Sir John Bruce Cotton, (mother of * V. Fielding, father of the present E.) she 3rd E. of Burlington, 4th B. CLIFFORD, and 4th E. of Corke in Ireland, great-grandson and heir of Richard, 1st E. of Burlington, by Elizabeth, sole dau. and heir of HENRY CLIFFORD, 4th E. of Cumberland, who had been summoned to Parliament, by writ, in the lifetime of his father Francis, 4th E. of Cumberland, as B. CLIFFORD, under the presumption that the ancient Barony of Clifford, by writ 1299, was vested in the 4th E. of Cumberland; but the right to this Barony, now possessed by Ld. De Clifford, proving to be in the heirs general of George, 3rd E. of Cumberland, elder Brother of the 4th E., this writ constituted a new Barony in fee to the 1st Ld., which was claimed by and allowed in 1737, to Richard, 3rd E. of Burlington, 4th Ld. CLIFFORD, as his heir general; on his death without issue male in 1753, his Irish titles devolved on the heir male, Roger, E. of Orrery, and 5th E. of Corke, the other English titles became ext., but the Barony of Clifford by writ descended to his dau. Charlotte, Dss. of Devonshire, grandmother of the present Duke.

Roger de Montgomerie who came into England with William the Conqueror, was E. of Arundel, Chichester, and Shrewsbury, and gave his name to the Town and Co. of Montgomerie in Wales. Robert de Montgomerie, supposed to be his grandson, settled in Scotland, and was ancestor of the original Earls of Eglintoun.

HUGH, 5th E. of EGLINTOUN, resigned his Earldom, and had a new grant of it, with the former precedence, to him and to the heirs male of his body, failing which to Sir Alexander Seton, Thomas Seton, and John Seton, 3rd, 4th, and 5th, sons of Robert, 1st E. of Wintoun, by Lady Margaret Montgomerie, his aunt.

The present E. is paternally descended from one of the two considerable Norman families in England of the name of Saye. Secher de Saye emigrated to Scotland in the reign of David I., and called his lands Saytoun, from whence his posterity derived their surname of Seton. In the 7th generation, Margaret, a dau. and heir, carried the estate by m. to Alan de Wintoun, supposed to be a collateral of the house; their only son Sir William Seton had two sons; 1 Sir John; 2 Alexander, who, by m. with Elizabeth de Gordon, was ancestor of the Duke of Gordon.

Sir John, the eld. son, was grandfather of George, 1st Ld. Seton, 7th in descent from whom was Robert, 6th Ld. Seton, and 1st E. of Wintoun, who m. Lady Margaret Montgomerie, eld. dau. of HUGH, 3rd E. of EGLINTOUN, and had by her, besides other sons, George, 3rd E. of Wintoun, who continued the line of Earls of Wintoun, forfeited in 1716, and ext. in 1728, by the death of James, 3rd V. Kingston, the last male descendant of the 3rd E. of Wintoun; and ALEXANDER, (3rd son,) who assumed the name of Montgomerie, and became, in pursuance of the patent above recited, 6th E. of EGLINTOUN; the male issue of his eld. son HUGH, 7th E., failed in 1796, on the death of ARCHIBALD, 11th E., his great-grandson; and James, 3rd son of the 6th E., was great-grandfather of HUGH, 12th E. grandfather of the present Earl.

COLLATERAL BRANCH.

Descended from Ld. Charles, 4th son of GEORGE, 2nd M. of HUNTLEY.

*George, E. of ABOYNE, &c.—See E. of Aboyne.

The Cas. of SUTHERLAND is descended from Hon. Adam, † 17 March 1537, 2nd son of GEORGE, 2nd Earl.

The Duke's paternal name is Seton, and his Grace is a collateral branch of the Earl of Eglington's family.

The territory of Gordon, in Berwickshire, was granted in the reign of King David II., to an Anglo-Norman settler who assumed from it his surname, and was ancestor of Adam de Gordon, killed at the battle of Halidon-Hill 1333, leaving two sons; 1 Sir Alexander, great-grandfather of Sir Adam, who left an only dau. and heir, Elizabeth; 2 William, ancestor of the Viscounts of Kenmure.

Sir Alexander Seton, younger brother of Sir John, ancestor of the ext. Earls of Wintoun, and of the E. of Eglington, m. Elizabeth, dau. and heir of Sir Adam de Gordon. Their son ALEXANDER, was created E. of Huntley, with remainder to his issue by Elizabeth, his 3rd wife, remainder to his heirs whatever; by his 1st m. he had no issue; by his 2nd he had one son Alexander, ancestor of the Setons of Touch; the issue of the 3rd m. assumed the name of Gordon, and in their male descendants the Earldom has since remained. GEORGE, 6th E., 6th in descent from the 1st E., was created M. of HUNTLEY; GEORGE, 4th M., his great-grandson was created D. of GORDON, and all the titles were re-granted to him, with remainder to his heirs male; the present Duke is 4th in descent from him.

Aug. 1807, Capt. G. E. B. Bettesworth, R.N., † 25
May 1808,) 2ndly, 30 Oct. 1809,
Edward Ellice, Esq., M.P.

This family is supposed to have come into England from Normandy with William the Conqueror, and settled in Northumberland, from whence a younger branch emigrated to Scotland in the 12th century, and founded the family of Lord Gray.

Sir John Grey, living in 1372, was father of Sir Thomas, who had two sons :

- 1 John, E. of Tankerville in Normandy, m. Joan, eld. dau. and co-heir of Edward Ld. Cherleton of Powis; his male line failed in 1552, and Ld.
Scarsdale, as his heir general, is eld. co-heir of the Barony of Cherleton of Powis.
- 2 Sir Thomas; 4th in descent from him was Sir Ralph Grey, who had two sons,
1 Sir Ralph, father of William, created B. Grey of Werke, which title became ext. in 1706, by the death of his grandson Ralph, 4th Ld., whose elder brother, Ford, 3rd Ld., had been created in 1695 V. Glendale and E. of Tankerville; he † without issue male in 1701, leaving an only dau. Lady Mary, m. to Charles Bennet, Ld. Ossulston, who was created E. of Tankerville, and was ancestor of the present Earl of Tankerville.
- 2 Sir Edward Grey of Howick, from whom CHARLES, 1st E., father of the present Earl, was 6th in descent.
